

Pronunciation

UNIT 13

Weak form in passive sentences

▶ Underline the auxiliary of be where the weak form is used in the passive sentences. Then listen and check.

- Popular celebrities are chosen by companies to advertise their products.
- It's true. Coffee is made from coffee cherries.
- I know it's wrong, but images are often digitally changed to make them look better.
- The title track of the movie Skyfall is sung by Adele.
- The car in that advert was driven by Thierry Henry.
- The images of both celebrities were changed.

UNIT 14

Who and whose in non-defining relative clauses

▶ Listen and circle the word you hear.

- My sister, who's / whose got a bigger bedroom than me, never tidies her room.
- Andrew Sutherland, who's / whose from California, invented the Quizlet program.
- The cookery book, who's / whose recipes are suitable for beginners, has been a bestseller.
- My friend's sister, whose / who's cookery skills are amazing, made him dinner.
- Jamie Oliver, whose / who's got restaurants all round Britain, also has a TV cookery programme.
- My friend, who's / whose cookbook collection is very big, made me a cake for my birthday.

UNIT 15

Vowel sounds

▶ Put the words with the underlined sound in the table. Some words go in more than one column. Then listen and check.

wildlife valley air conditioning historic buildings monuments ruins pollution street lights modorn architecture
open spaces facilities clinics seasons

/æ/
/i:/
/ɪ/
/ɑ:/
/ɒ/
/aɪ/
/eɪ/
/u:/
/eə/

UNIT 16

Sentence stress

▶ Listen and mark with a ' the words that are stressed in each response.

- A: What's in front of the building?
B: There's a statue of a famous artist.
- A: Who is the statue of?
B: I think it's of Picasso.
- A: What's on the right?
B: There are some people on bikes.
- A: What are those people doing?
B: It looks like they are making a film.
- A: What do you think it's about?
B: It might be a film about a cycle race.
- A: Who's that man over there?
B: I think he's the film director.